Invitation upon article acceptance

Once an article is editorially accepted for publication, the author receives an email with a link to complete the publishing agreement.

Authors will also receive an email containing the login link.
Search for your institution

Corresponding authors are asked to type in their institution in the search field and “select their institution”.

Authors should then select the institution from the drop-down list in order for the identification to work.

Authors are also identified via IP range and/or an institutional email domain in the “background”.

Search for your institution II

To help ensure as many authors as possible are able to identify themselves, Springer Nature retains lists of name variants for every eligible institution.

We have integrated the Research Organization Registry into our systems to help cover as many different name iterations for every institution as possible.
Select your affiliation

If the author is identified as eligible, a welcome message appears, which provides further information on the OA agreement.

Authors are informed on how they were identified.

Eligible article types:
- OriginalPaper
- ReviewPaper
- BriefCommunication
- ContinuingEducation

Eligible license types:
- CC-BY
- CC-BY NC
